

X-CHANGE, GO FIGHTING!

It is a famous reality show, well known to the majority of young people. Under the background that more and more programs are crudely made, X Change is like a stream making us up, whose spiritual demand level is falling day by day. It is not only an entertainment program, but also a spiritual product, which teaches us what friendship is, how to get along well with others, and why we should live a beatific life forgetting the annoyance, anxiety and sadness.

X Change focuses on the social hot spots, and tells every good story set in the surrounding. This show gathers the most popular stars nowadays, for example, Sun Honglei. They provide the brand effect as well as the amusement, the intelligence and the more they transmit to us. They play ordinary roles in our life, experiencing the housework as a cleaner, the express work as a deliver and the job restaurant as a waiter. Through their communications and company with passers-by, we can learn lots of knowledge and skills. Of course, they also play some fantasy roles shuttling in the ancient and modern. When it comes to the shooting locations, in a big way, this show takes Shanghai as the center, and has gone to many provinces of China, like Yunnan. In a small way, the places are include meeting room, station. Therefore, the passers-by play an important part for this show, which is the reason why more and more people can accept the high-end but common program.

The program mainly shows men how win with chase, charm, wisdom, sweat blood in various competition. And using open mode makes the show completely different from the past pattern shows. In the meanwhile, the producer instills the benevolence, righteousness, courtesy, wisdom and trust in this show, which is the other reason why it becomes popular.

Go fighting!

This is a so great movie that can make you feel great.

The movie was adapted from the novel of the same name by Li Bihua, because of this film, I admired the outstanding author very much. As the director of this film, Chen Kaige became famous around the world. Of course, the biggest highlight of the movie was the actors' acting. All the actors seemed to be the reality in the life, who had his own distinctive feature, which made the film get more vivid. Especially, my idol, Gor Gor, Leslie Cheung, who is Cheng Dieyi in that movie, gave a wonderful performance. In a word, this movie is a great work.

This film based on the Chinese history of more than half a century, told two actors' life. One was Chen Dieyi, one is Duan Xiaolou played by Zhang Fengyi. They grew up together in the theater, and formed a firm emotion between them. When they were young, their Farewell to My Concubine had hit the whole city, so they agreed in a lifetime play. However, because of their essentially different attitude towards play, they experienced a lot of departure and reunion, and finally the emotion grew worse. During the Great Cultural Revolution, they defamed each other. No one knew whether Farewell would be played in that relentless fire. 11 years pasted, after the revolution, the traditional cultural work became vital. They came back to the stage again to perform the great work. In the spotlight, the two acted as they were in the past. When Cheng danced with tears filled into his eyes, for some reason, he drew the sword from Duan and killed himself. Why did Yu Ji die?

The Days of the Beijing East Road

The graduation song is created by students of the 2010 session who are from class six, senior three in Nanjing foreign language school. And the song's video is published in June, 2016, which becomes more and more popular soon after it is concerned by medium. From then on, all kinds of network adaptations of the song are continuing without end.

Beijing East Road is a main road in the center of Nanjing City, Nanjing foreign language school is also located in the neighborhood. In a full harvest, filled with pure feelings and with a little sad graduation season, more than a dozen students in the school went into the studio and finished the song, they use the song to let the missing senior school life stay in their memory forever, which likes every step in the east road.

The style of the song is fresh and sentimental, apart from, there is a kind of rare pure in it. In this song that lets a number of people fall in love, in addition to the full picture of the campus scene, there are some words that are understood difficulty, but in a matter of fact, those all come from the source. This song is simple melody, everyone can hear the performer's running tone, but it is not realistic to this artificial source that attracts a lot of people to applaud and touches everyone's heart, it awakens listener's youth memory, as if returning to the original of their own.

On the morning of November 17th, the opening of the 5th sports meeting was held in the stadium lied in the east of Hubei Polytechnic University. School leaders and representatives of students were gathered there.

Besides basic programs, what attracted students most was the school of Management's Lion Dancing. It's not only for the grand scene, but also for which passed on the Chinese excellent traditional culture. As an athlete, it's honourable to run in the field. When you were running, the moment you heard the cheerful sounds from your friends, you would dedicate yourself to running faster despite that you were completely exhausted. Therefore, it's quite difficult for you to persist few minutes seems like several hours as usual. After you passed the finishing line, wherever you ranked, your friends delivered drinks and gave a warm hug to you which were better than anything else.

It's amazing that the sports meeting was ended with aerobics showing. The leaping dance still appears in my mind constantly.

Accession to the WTO, China's Changes

By Li Longji, 16-Automobile Application Technology

December 11th, 2016 is the fifteen year anniversary of China's accession to the WTO. For 15 years, what impact will China's WTO accession bring to China's economic development?

What does China's accession to the world trade and economic system mean?

First of all, by joining the WTO and the world trade, China's economy has achieved growth in the global competition. On the eve of China's accession to the WTO, China is the sixth largest economy in the world. Now, China has become the world's second largest economy, the largest goods trading country, and the world's second largest foreign investment country. Accession to the WTO is an important step in China's integration into the world market, which is conducive to attract foreign investment, enhance exports and promote economic development.

Secondly, China's development after the accession to the WTO allows the world to benefit, to achieve mutual benefit and win-win situation. Former director general of the WTO has commented that China's accession to the WTO has brought tremendous changes in world trade, so many countries have also benefited from China.

Third, with the gradual deepening of the global economic and trade relations, China is no longer a passive acceptance of the international economic and trade framework, begin to actively participate in the formulation of rules. China's economic and trade interaction with the outside world continue to deepen.

In the 15 years of China's accession to the WTO, from the summary of the past, there is no doubt that it can make China better in the future to adapt to economic globalization, to participate in economic globalization, to shape the economic globalization.

The ceremony of Blue Sky Rescue was held grandly in Hudu Building on December 4th to welcome the young volunteers who joined in our school.

As is well-known, the Blue Sky Rescue is Chinese folk professional pure public emergency rescue team. It plays a role in the field of international humanitarian aid, and shows the responsibility of the volunteers. To establish and promote domestic civil aid service for the purpose, the Blue Sky Rescue would assist the government's emergency response system to finish the task.

The captain had a speech at the beginning of the ceremony. In summary, there are only three words, which were "Congratulation, Wish, and Hope". He said the youth in the college have more activity and vitality, he also believed that our students' participation can make Blue Sky Rescue better and more powerful. Actually, his speech made every volunteer excited and encouraged them to do their best to help the one who was in trouble in this world.

We should believe that, with the help of the Blue Sky Rescue, and with more young volunteers' participation, our country will be more beautiful!

Michael begged: "I am willing to help all the players carry luggage. When they left, I would be willing to help them sweat. Please let me play with these players in this team." His coach agreed. From then on, Michael practiced the ball day and night, he was more than anyone to work. At last he managed to grow taller and become the best player.

In 2003, Jordan retired, but he will always be our idol and be remembered and admired by us.

At the beginning of December, We look forward to the Victoria Secret Show. Reasons to watch the Show: the beach waves, the outfits, and, of course, their amazing bodies! Now let's follow a new star in China together.

He Sui, born in September 23th, 1989 in Wenzhou, Zhejiang, is an international supermodel from China. In February 2011, He Sui unveiled New York fashion week, served as the opening model for Ralph. Then Tan Yanyu became the opening and closing model. Followed by four consecutive appearances on Victoria's annual secret show, He Sui became the second Oriental supermodel aboard the Victoria Secret Show after Liu Wen. On May 1, 2015, the film "My Sunshine", starred by Huang Xiaoming and Yang Mi was released in China. To our surprise, He Sui starred in the film. On December 1, 2016, she participated in the 2016 Vitoria Secret Underwear Show.

job. A month later, Meng returned to Nan Jing. After feeling the hardships of the life. He realized that knowledge can change one's life, even if it can't, at least one's job. So Meng made a decision to study again.

After that, Meng got up early and slept late to get more knowledge and more money. Day after day, Meng lost his weight very fast and hadn't got enough sleep. Until one day, he took a bad mistake when he worked in a printing house with his overworked body. Knowing this job can not push him close to the goal. Therefore, he moved towards the proper direction to change his job for better, it's reporter.

"We suffered many hardships in life. In contrast, it's a chance to create the peak of the life", said him. Incredible, isn't it? So nothing is impossible for a willing heart.

In 2013, a strange and familiar man appeared at the donation site. Carrying a sack with his weak body. Everyone was surprised when he dropped the money on the table.

Wu Jinquan was born in 1928 and grew up in Nantong, Jiangsu province. He was honorable to be the one of the top ten figures who touched China in 2015.

As a child, Wu liked helping others. Wu became a willing helper of everyone who was in trouble. He could always feel happy after helping. It's because he got so many happiness elements that he could insist offering his friendly hand.

In 1956, Wu joined the Party. In his mind, Party members should be honest, warm-hearted and simple so that he can help others faithfully for several years. Because of devoting personality, he was admitted to be the leader of the production team.

It's worth mention that Wu has a good craft. In the past 40 years, Wu has sharpened about 20 knives for just 20 coin. Although 20 coins are trivial for most people, Wu regard these coins as a priceless treasure. Wu conveyed this invaluable treasure carefully and insistently. Every small things can be accumulated into huge thing. He thought just one coin may be does its important work.

Offstage, a pair of deep dimples often reveals how sweet and lovely she is.

There is no doubt that she is an outstanding model. Pretty face, slim figure and vibrant, which are always synonyms for them. However, not everyone knows the hard work behind them.

A large number of sports and stringent screening criterion, have made her strong and brave no matter what obstacles in front of her. Every day she exercises 4 hours and eats the beef with boiled water. Of course, foods are tasteless and bitter. But what makes the Angels so inspirational is how curvy and muscular they all are. She has chiseled abs, toned legs, and the type of butt that can only come from tons of squats. While she were genetically blessed, the women who walk in this show work out for months leading up the highly televised event.

What we can do is looking toward to them, making continuous effort and never giving up. At the end of this essay, there is a slogan for you: I eat less meat today, and I show Victoria Secret next year!!

My Goddess

By Lu Kexin, aka'

I believe that all of us have a role model in our minds, and it is their influences that make us better. They're the people who promote us not to be lazy, to work hard, to go to bed early and to get up early, unremittingly to realize our dreams. Today I want to talk about my idol, my heart of the goddess.

Born in September 10, 1989 in Tianjin, Zhang Bichen is a mainland China female singer. In 2013, Zhang Bichen was elected to be South Korean women's "Sunny days" combination debut singer "K-POP", "the most outstanding award celebration of the world". In July 2014, she participated in the third quarter, the Voices of China, joined the mentor Na Ying's group. In favor with the general public, she won the annual general champion and became the "Voice of China," as the first female champion.

She went to South Korea to learn singing and dancing when she was sixteen years old, as an intern in a Korean performing arts company. She got up early every morning to practice her voice, and practiced dancing until she was thoroughly soaked, over and over again. Not be allowed to linked to the outside world, not be allowed to have recreational activities, she must endure cruel screening and the thoughts of the family with enclosed training, but she insisted on going to the end.

She is so beautiful and charming that I am impressed by her diligence and persistence which give me the courage not to give up my enthusiasm for life. The diligent person will always be worthy of everyone's respect. And I believe that all of us can be people like them. No pains, no gains. If you want to achieve your goals in the future, just work hard right here and right now without any stop.

SHE WEAR BODY PAINT INSTEAD OF CLOTHES

By Shi Wenjun, aka' Elsa, Bach-Chinese Language-1

Her name is Julie and she is trading her clothes for body paint. She has never been body -painted before and she is definitely nervous.

Growing up, she never really had much issue with her body image until probably late high school. She was in musical world and she had to wear a leotard on stage. The next day at school, she heard someone talking about her cellulite on her legs. She was always concerned with whether she looked skinny enough. That kinda planted a seed in her head. By wearing body paint she feels like she is taking off a shield and she is putting herself out of there. She is really scared but she thinks it is gonna be a positive step forward.

Going outside wearing only body paint is really similar to having insecurities. She comes into feeling scared but she feels like she has conquered.

Sometimes we overthink things and we don't want to do some "strange" things because we are scared of what other people are gonna think. Be strong and do not listen to what other people say. And do not let it matter so much. What matters inside is that counts the most and that is where our strength and beauty come from.

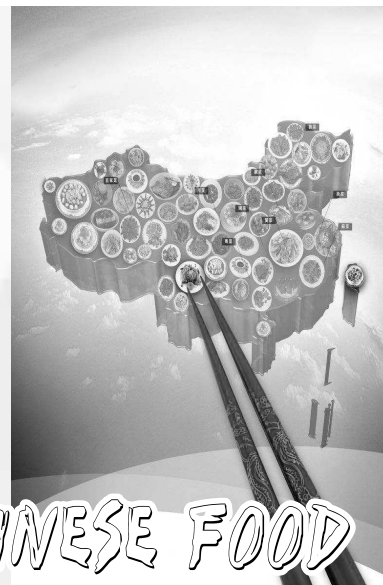

China covers a large territory and has many nationalities, hence a variety of Chinese food with different but fantastic and mouthwatering flavor. Since China's local dishes have their own unique characteristics, generally, Chinese food can be roughly divided into eight regional cuisines, which has been widely accepted around. Certainly, there are many other local cuisines that are famous, such as Beijing Cuisine and Shanghai Cuisine.

Shandong is the birthplace of many famous ancient scholars such as Confucius and Mencius. And much of Shandong cuisine's history is as old as Confucius himself, making it the oldest existing major cuisine in China. Shandong is the birthplace of many famous ancient scholars such as Confucius and Mencius. And much of Shandong cuisine's history is as old as Confucius himself.

Sichuan Cuisine, known often in the West as Szechuan Cuisine, is one of the most famous Chinese cuisines in the world. Characterized by its spicy and pungent flavor, Sichuan cuisine, prolific of tastes, emphasizes the use of chili. Pepper and prickly ash also never fail to accompany, producing exciting tastes. Besides, garlic, ginger and fermented soybean are also used in the cooking process. Wild vegetables and animals are usually chosen as ingredients, while frying, frying without oil, pickling and braising are applied as basic cooking techniques. It cannot be said that one who does not experience Sichuan food ever reaches China.

Cantonese food originates from Guangdong, the southernmost province in China. The majority of overseas Chinese people are from Guangdong (Canton) so Cantonese is perhaps the most widely available Chinese regional cuisine outside of China.

Hunan cuisine consists of local Cuisines of Xiangjiang Region, Dongting Lake and Xiangxi coteau. It characterizes itself by thick and pungent flavor. Chili, pepper and shallot are usually necessary in this division.

Anhui Cuisine chefs focus much more attention on the temperature when cooking and if it is good at braising and stewing. Often hams will be added in order to perfect taste and sugar candy added to gain.

Comprising local cuisines of Hangzhou, Ningbo and Shaoxing, Zhejiang Cuisine, not greasy, wins its reputation for freshness, tenderness, softness, smoothness of its dishes with mellow fragrance. Hangzhou Cuisine is the most famous one among the three.

Jiangsu Cuisine, also called Huaiyang Cuisine, is popular in the lower reach of the Yangtze River. Aquatics as the main ingredients, it stresses the freshness of materials. Its carving techniques are delicate, of which the melon carving technique is especially well known.

READING BOOKS

By Luo Fang aka' Lucy, Accounting Class-1

Just as an old saying goes: books are the ladders of human progress. Reading a meaningful book can enrich our spirit, reading a good book make our life full of fun.

However, nowadays, more and more people have no passion in reading, because most of students have a mobile phone, they will surf the internet instead of reading books.

I think this is a bad phenomenon and we should stick to reading a book to read a good book. With the development of the society, the university has a school library. As a college student, I believe we should go to the library in our spare time to read books, not just to stare at mobile phone. Although you can in the mobile phone reading books, but the real books are the best choice, due to that we can make notes when reading books and keep it in mind.

A good book is a light to soul, there are different kinds of books in library. Such as novels and short stories, adventure stories and detective stories, travel books and so on you can choose whatever you like and enjoy it a lot.

Nowadays, with the rapid development of technology, online shopping becomes popular and fashionable among users. In particular, we can clearly see that a double tenth 12-12 of online shopping.

However, everything has its pros and cons, including online shopping, on one hand, online shopping has many advantages. First, it is convenient for us to buy stuff and what you should do is just to click the mouse. In addition, the buyers have opportunity to make choices and decisions compared with other commodities.

hooking onto the internet with a computer, they may say-good-buy to the exhausting journey of searching, while others believe that they cannot feel certain about their choice, besides, they don't doubt whether the companies will deliver the right items at right time to a right place. In a double tenth 12-12 express delivery speed will be low, so there are a lot of people don't like online shopping.

In my opinion, shopping online is convenient indeed, but we should be very careful when we decide which item to buy and which company can be trustworthy. Additionally we should guard against the hackers who intend to steal our account passwords.

I chatted happily with a group of friends online last night. It was so good to have some friends whom you have not seen, you still have so much to say. Then some female friends told me that they were not single any longer. I even could not believe my eyes because one of those who found a boy friend and made her become a competent girl. She was so proud, so clever. She was the only female that I admired.

So I wondered who he was very much. Anyhow, she just said that he was ordinary both in appearances and characters. She told us that love a person was to get us better. Yes, he was ordinary, but he suited her as he loved studies. They have so many topics to talk about. They take care of each other, mutual tolerance. That may be love. That is enough, isn't it?

Love may be the two people who have the same interests and then running to the same direction by their common efforts, all along is gentle, is feeling. Do not worry, your love is on the way.

By Zhang Chengfei,

Love is a ray of sunshine in the winter, the cold and hunger people feel particularly of warmth; Love is the desert a spring making thirsty men have renewed the fire of hope; Love is the long drought earth a down-pour, is in accordance with the nurses who get warm consolation. Love is an art which involves deep emotion. It is a pure and lofty desire in one's innermost heart. Real love means not only a kind of pleasure, but also loyalty and obligation. To love is to give and sacrifice. One who can not create happiness or sacrifice for his beloved, cannot be counted as a true lover.

To be loved you have to love. True lovers are willing to sacrifice themselves for each others' sake. True love needs no expression in words. One glance is enough to make each other understand. A handshake, a gentle touch inspired by respect and admiration, will leave you intoxicated and remain in your memory. Even when you are old you will recall and cherish it with deep emotion.

Real love is unforgettable. With the development of science and technology, love becomes more rich, fine and subtle. As is known to all, everyone is born with the right to love and also the right to refuse to return love. Human love exists with human beings. Wherever there are people, there is love.

Let us draw courage, confidence and happiness from love.
